

Dallas Association of Insurance Professionals*

Founded 1949

Dallas Association of Insurance Professionals is a not-for-profit professional organization founded in 1949. DAIP's purpose is to promote a high standard of professionalism through education.

DAIP has awarded thousands of dollars in scholarships to persons pursuing professional and college education.

DAIP is affiliated with the Federation of Insurance Women of Texas, which consists of 18 local associations across Texas. FIWT's motto is "Federation for Education."

Three membership categories are available.

- Active Membership — Any individual currently employed in any insurance-related industry.
- Associate Membership — Any individual not otherwise qualified for another class of membership.
- Retired Membership — Any member who is retired from the insurance business.

Why Join DAIP?

DAIP membership provides an excellent opportunity to network with and get to know other professionals in the insurance industry.

Members can participate in community service projects with groups such as Ronald McDonald House, senior living homes, homeless shelters, and military service personnel and their families.

DAIP Membership Affords Many Opportunities

- Leadership Experience
- Career Development
- Continuing Education
- Business Contacts
- Community Service Opportunities
- Networking Opportunities
- Stimulating Fellowship
- Annual FIWT Convention (October)
- FIWT Mid-Year Education Conference (April)

Monthly Meetings

DAIP holds monthly meetings on the second Thursday of each month at a Dallas-area restaurant.

Members gather after work for fellowship, followed by dinner at 6 p.m., then a program or speaker and a short business meeting.
